

Schiffelly Puppets is a performing arts group dedicated to presenting quality family entertainment and educational programs.

Jim Holds a B.S. in Theatre from Mankato State University and has performed in over 35 theatrical productions in Minnesota. Jim is responsible for the creation of original voices and puppet characters seen in all Schiffelly productions. Jim is also an Emmy award winning video editor and producer with the City of Lakeville.

Shelley has been involved with various stage and television projects over the last 25 years. Shelley is in charge of all puppet design and construction. She spends the majority of her time as a stay at home mom watching her two young boys.

Sue Schiffman holds a B.A. in Preschool and Elementary Education from Gustavus Adolphus College. She is employed during the school year with Burnsville School District as a preschool teacher. She has been working with Schiffelly Puppets for 14 years in various capacities.

.....And yes, she is married to Jim!!!!